

2018 CVIM ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC

☆☆☆☆☆

Foursome and Same-Day Round Trip Flight to Newport County Club, Newport, Rhode Island

Newport Country Club, founded in 1893, is a historic private golf club in Newport, Rhode Island, that hosted both the first U.S. Amateur Championship and the first U.S. Open in 1895.

The 18-hole "Newport" course at the Newport Country Club facility in Newport, Rhode Island features 6,735 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 70. The course rating is 72.7 and it has a slope rating of 129 on Rye grass. Designed by William F. Davis/(R) A.W. Tillinghast, the Newport golf course opened in 1893. Michael Sullivan manages the course as the Clubhouse Manager.

Play must be scheduled Monday through Friday with tee off before noon. Exceptions are holidays.

Must be redeemed before June 12, 2019